

I am writing in support of granting ETC status to Choice communications in an effort to foster competition and growth of telecommunications in the territory. Innovative is the sole telephone provider and their service is deplorable. The typical wait time for repair telephone service is one month. There is an ample market for more than one carrier and Innovative currently has a monopoly here. Please grant ETC status to choice and help the Virgin Islands.